

What is a long-term infrastructure project of public sector

A long-term infrastructure project of public sector is a project aimed at providing, updating, operating or maintaining large-scale assets that a Member State of the European Union considers to be of public interest. (Subsection 6 of § 54² of the Income Tax Act)

Last updated on 08.01.2025